Other Opportunities

24/7 Prayer Chapel – Dannen Chapel, entrance located on the outside northeast corner of Hyde Chapel, is open 24/7 for your prayer needs.

Interactive Prayer Trail – Located behind the Legett Christian Center. Walk the trail and encounter 5 interactive stations based on the prayer forms of Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, Supplication, and Intercession. All ages will find this a fun and meaningful way to pray!

Labyrinth – A Labyrinth is a spiritual tool, a path of prayer, a walking meditation. Our Labyrinth is designed out of stones and located behind the Museum. Brochures about the Labyrinth and how to walk the Labyrinth are located at the starting point.

Bible Point Trail – Along the trail you will encounter selected Psalms that sing to the glory of God revealed in nature. If you need help finding the trail, pick up a map in the mountain center.

Beatitude Study Trail – Enjoy a hike while studying the beatitudes from Jesus' famous "Sermon on the Mount." The trailhead and study guides are located at the Dorsey Lake parking lot. The trail makes a 1-mile loop.

Story Walk – Enjoy a children's book on a short walk equipped with "reading stations." Story walk begins on the walking path by the Hyde Chapel fire pit.

Lawn Games – Located on the west side of Hyde Chapel is a storage shed full of lawn games for your enjoyment. Feel free to play these games on the Hyde Chapel lawn anytime you wish! Please return games to shed when you are finished using them.

Chapel Ministry Vision Statement

The YMCA of the Rockies Chapel Ministry seeks to honor God and embody the teachings of Jesus Christ through the fostering of relationships, stewardship of the natural environment, and creating faith-based programs that are spiritually engaging and respectful of all.
